

Mark Malouf

Australia

Dr G Mark Malouf is a surgeon in phlebology practice in Sydney, Australia. MB, BS Sydney, 1976, FRACS 1982 and FRCS (Eng) 1983. Past vascular fellow of St Mary's Hospital, Paddington, London 1984-5. Previous involvement in both the 1998 UIP world congress in Sydney and the UIP world congress in Melbourne in 2018. He is the president of the Australian and New Zealand Society of Phlebology, past vice-president of the International Union of Phlebology. He has close links with the European Venous Forum, the French Society of Phlebology, the Venous Association of India and the American College of Phlebology. His expertise is in all aspects of venous disease.